WV ArchiPAC
The West Virginia Chapter of the American Institute of Architects
Political Action Committee

223 Hale Street
PO Box 813
Charleston, WV 25323

WV ArchiPAC is the bipartisan political action committee of the West Virginia Chapter of the American Institute of Architects. WV ArchiPAC serves as the single voice for the architectural profession on the state political scene. Funded by WV AIA members’ voluntary contributions, WV ArchiPAC is the tool that architects use to voice the AIA’s positions to our state elected leaders on issues affecting our profession, practices, communities, and the built environment.

A strong PAC is critical, providing us with an opportunity to ensure that the candidates for the West Virginia Legislature who support our initiatives and issues get elected. Decisions affecting our profession will be made whether we are part of the conversation or not, so it is essential that we have a seat at the table to represent our membership and our issues. Having a strong, healthy PAC gives us the opportunity to be a part of that conversation.

- Contributions from individuals other than AIAWV Members or Associate Members are not permitted.
- Corporate or Business checks cannot be accepted.
- Contributions go to support candidates for office that fight for the values of the AIA and its members.
- WV ArchiPAC donations are not tax deductible.
- State law requires political committees to use best efforts to collect and report the name, address, and employer. Amounts are suggestions only but limitations do apply (i.e. $1000 maximum for primary election and $1000 maximum for general election)
- Contributions are strictly voluntary and do not affect AIAWV membership status.

Decisions are made every day by our state government that affects your professional practice, whether you are a firm owner, manager, or employee. As an AIAWV member, join forces to build a powerful PAC with a loud voice.
